

Ms.Sarunya Lormaneenoapparat, Director

Nationality: Thai
Status: Married a Cambodian, Mr. Somethearith Din (Architect)
Working Place: Freelance Landscape designer and part time lecturer for Department of Architecture Norton University Phnom Penh Cambodia

Handle main course on,

- Architecture form and space,
- Creative conceptualization,
- Landscape design and site planning,
- Urban landscape and Landscape ecology.

Education:

2002 Master of Science in Urban Environmental Management Program, Asian Institute of Technology (AIT), Bangkok, Thailand
1999 Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, Chulalongkorn University

Public Landscape Design and Planning Consultation for Government's projects:

2005 Site design improvement and landscape design for Thai Supreme Court main office in collaboration with Chulalongkorn University

2004 Landscape design and planning for Rangsit municipality master plan, Patumthani province Thailand; City gate way and Rangsit canals landscape design, (in collaboration with Faculty of Architecture, Thammasart University)

2003 Landscape design and planning part for Aumpang municipality master plan development: local landscape conservation affected by tourism, Aumpang Town, Tak Province, in collaboration with Faculty of Architecture, Thammasart University

2003 Site design improvement at Red Cross sub center (former Cambodian refugee center) for recreation, memorial and tourism uses at Kao Lan District, Trad Province, in collaboration with Department of Landscape Architecture of Chulalongkorn University

Academic working experience:

2005-Now Part time lecturer at department of Architecture, Norton University, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

2002-2005 Instructor at Department of Landscape Architecture of Chulalongkorn University

1999-2001 2003 Visiting lecturer at department of Architecture, Norton University, Phnom Penh, Cambodia

Research experiences:

2007 UNESCO Fellowship award program, Khmer traditional house and landscape conservation

2005 researcher for "landscape characteristic of Khmer house and cultural landscape change in Koh Dach, Cambodia supported by faculty of Architecture Chulalongkorn University

2004-5 Co-researcher Housing standards for elderly people in Thailand, supported by National research center

2004 Researcher in " Cultural and environmental landscape in Koh Dach Cambodia" exchange program with Faculty of Archeology, Faculty of Architecture, Royal University of Fine Arts (RUFA) from 5th May - 4th June 2004 supported by Mekong sub region center and department of university Thailand.